CATHEDRAL

Services and Music List

November 2019

WELCOME TO BELFAST CATHEDRAL

With the changing of the clocks and darker evenings, the month of November is a time for reflection and remembering. It begins with All Saints' Day (on Friday 1st November), an opportunity (along with All Souls' Day on the 2nd) to remember before God, not just the great saints of the church, past and present, but also all those people known to us who have entered God's eternity over the past twelve months. Within the musical life of Belfast Cathedral, we will hold particular memories of both David Drinkell (Cathedral Organist and Master of Choristers from 1988-2002) and Richard Erskine, a former member of the cathedral choir whose tragic death was announced on 12th October.

Sundays 3rd and 10th November will see the cathedral marking Remembrance more formally. Within the life of the cathedral we call to mind all who suffered and all who died in two world wars, through the Troubles in this Province, in other more recent conflicts, and though the ongoing devastation of the current warfare in Syria, Yemen and across the Middle East.

It is through the regular rhythm of 5.30pm Choral Evensong and Prayer offered within the cathedral each weekday that the power of music and the prayers of God's people combine to fold the world's pains and our individual losses into God's eternal purpose. It is good, therefore, that from the first week in November, we shall establish our regular pattern weekday evening services at 5.30pm: Choral Evensong in the Cathedral Quire on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday evenings; said Evening Prayer on Mondays, and Evening Prayer with Plainchant on Tuesdays in the Chapel of the Holy Spirit. Do make it your regular habit to join us for Evensong, whether visiting Belfast, or as the very best way of ending the working day.

And as the month of November draws to a close, we will prepare for all the celebrations and festivities of the Christmas Carol Season in December, but not until we have first marked the call to watch and wait, and prepare for the coming of the Christ, through our Cathedral Advent Carol Service which will be held at 6.30pm on Sunday 1st December.

"Ne Obliviscaris"

The Very Reverend Stephen Forde, Dean of Belfast

ABOUT BELFAST CATHEDRAL

Belfast Cathedral, (the Cathedral Church of St Anne) is a Cathedral of the Church of Ireland, and part of the worldwide Anglican Communion (Episcopalian). It is unusual in serving two separate dioceses, The Diocese of Connor, and The Diocese of Down and Dromore; it therefore has not one but two Bishops' Seats.

The Cathedral has stood for 120 years as a place of Christian worship in the heart of the City of Belfast. Featuring the 56-metre stainless steel Spire of Hope (added in 2007), detailed mosaics by the sisters Gertrude and Margaret Martin, elaborately carved stonework by sculptors Rosamond Praeger, Morris Harding, and Esmond Burton, and beautiful stained glass windows, this Hiberno-Romanesque building is one of the ecclesiastical and architectural highlights of Northern Ireland.

The splendid acoustic of the Cathedral is the setting for the 4-manual Harrison & Harrison organ, a Wells-Kennedy chamber organ, and a 2 manual organ by the renowned Dutch firm, Klop. The Cathedral Choir sings for Sunday Services and weekday Choral Evensongs, as well as large diocesan and civic occasions. Over the years the Cathedral choirs have sung on national and local radio and television, and have undertaken concerts and tours.

Belfast Cathedral sits at the heart of The Cathedral Quarter, which is known for its unique and artisan shops, wide variety of restaurants, and buzzing nightlife, close to the Titanic Quarter, and the city centre itself.

The clergy, staff, congregation, and volunteers of Belfast Cathedral look forward to offering you a warm welcome.

AN INTRODUCTION TO CHORAL EVENSONG

Choral Evensong takes place in the Quire (or choir section) of the Cathedral. If you are able to stay for the whole service, which lasts 30 to 40 minutes, you are most welcome to sit in the Canons' Stalls in the back rows of the Quire. That is where you will be able to see and hear the Service to best advantage. Otherwise, you are welcome to sit in the Nave (the main body of the cathedral).

Evensong is taken from the centuries-old Book of Common Prayer. Prepared primarily by Thomas Cranmer, who became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1533, it was viewed as a compromise between old and new ideas. The book's service of Evensong uses elements of the ancient monastic evening services of Vespers and Compline. It is centred on two canticles, or songs: the Magnificat (the Song of Mary, from the Gospel of Luke), and the Nunc dimittis (the Song of Simeon, also from the Gospel of Luke). In addition there sung prayers (the Preces and Responses), a sung Psalm, or Psalms (from the Old Testament); and an anthem, which may reflect a particular season or Saint's Day. These choral offerings are interspersed with bible readings and spoken prayers.

Sacred music within the liturgy is one of the church's greatest cultural and religious heritages, and is enjoyed by those of all faiths and those of no faith. The choir and minister offer an evening thanksgiving to Almighty God on behalf of the congregation gathered in this iconic building. It is our hope that you will feel a very warm welcome and leave Belfast Cathedral feeling refreshed and uplifted.

INFORMATION

ANTHEM AND CANTICLES TRANSLATIONS

Selected translations of anthems which are not sung in English (at services when there is not a printed order) are available towards the back of this booklet. In addition, there are translations of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis for when they are not sung in English.

BIBLE TRANSLATION

Belfast Cathedral uses the New Revised Standard Version translation of the bible for all services. Reading selections are taken from the Church of Ireland Lectionary.

CHOIR

Unless otherwise specified, all choral services are sung by Belfast Cathedral Choir. On Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays Choral Evensong is normally sung by the Lay Clerks. Sunday services are sung by the Lay Clerks with guest sopranos. Recruitment for choristers (boys and girls aged between 7 and 14) to sing in the Belfast Cathedral Children's Choir is taking place this term. The Cathedral's Director of Music, Mr Matthew Owens, is always pleased to hear from parents of prospective choristers. Please email him via music@belfastcathedral.org

TRANSLATIONS OF ANTHEMS NOT SUNG IN ENGLISH

THURSDAY 7 NOVEMBER

In paradisum (Naylor)

In paradisum deducant te angeli:
in tuo adventu suscipiant te martyres, et perducant te in civitatem sanctam Hierusalem.
Chorus angelorum te suscipiat, et cum Lazaro quondam paupere aeternam habeas requiem.
Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui
Sancto.
Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper et in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

*May the angels lead you into paradise:
may the martyrs receive you at your coming,
and may they guide you into the holy city, Jerusalem.
May the chorus of angels receive you,
and with Lazarus, once poor,
may you have eternal rest.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.
As it was in the beginning, is now and shall be for ever. Amen.*

Words: Antiphon from the Latin liturgy of the Requiem Mass

THURSDAY 14 NOVEMBER

Da pacem, Domine (de Vento)

Da pacem, Domine, in diebus nostris
Quia non est alius
Qui pugnet pro nobis Nisi tu Deus noster.

*Give peace, O Lord, in our time
Because there is no one else
Who fights for us
If not You, our God.*

Words: Latin hymn, 6th century

FRIDAY 15 NOVEMBER

Quam pulchra est (Dunstable)

Quam pulchra es et quam decora
carissima in deliciis Statura tua assimilata est palmæ, et ubera tua botri
caput tuum ut carmelus collum tuum sicut turris eburnean Veni dilecte mi; egrediamur in agrum et videamus si flores fructus parturiunt, si floruerunt mala punica.
Ibi dabo tibi ubera mea.
Alleluia.

*How beautiful and fair you are, my beloved,
most sweet in your delights.
Your stature is like a palm-tree,
and your breasts are like fruit.
Your head is like Carmel and your neck is like a tower of ivory.
Come, my beloved, let us go into the fields and see if the blossoms have born fruit, and if the pomegranates have flowered.
There will I give my breasts to you.
Alleluia.*

Words: Song of Songs Chapter 7, vv 4-7, 11-12

WEDNESDAY 20 NOVEMBER

FRIDAY 22 NOVEMBER

Cecilia virgo gloriosa semper (Certon)

[pars una]
Cecilia virgo gloriosa semper evangelium Christi gerebat in pectore suo;
non diebus neque noctibus a colloquiis divinis et oratione vacabat.

[part one]
*That glorious virgin Cecilia always carried the gospel of Christ in her breast;
In neither day nor night did she cease from communion with God or from prayer.*

[pars duorum]
Dum aurora finem daret, Cecilia dixit:
Eya milites Christi, abjicite opera tenebrarum et induimini arma lucis.

[part two]
*As dawn broke, Cecilia said:
'Huzza, soldiers of Christ,
Cast away the works of darkness and wear the armour of light.*

Words: anonymous

FRIDAY 29 NOVEMBER

Doctor bonus, amicus Dei Andreas (Victoria)

Doctor bonus, amicus Dei
Andreas ducitur ad crucem.
Aspiciens a longe, vidit crucem et dixit:
"Salve crux, suscipe discipulum eius qui pependit in te magister meus Christus."

*A virtuous teacher and friend of God, Andrew was led to the cross.
Looking from afar, he saw the cross and said:
"Hail, cross, receive a disciple of him who hung on you, Christ, my master."*

Words: Motet for the feast of St Andrew

TRANSLATION OF THE EVENING CANTICLES

Magnificat

Magnificat anima mea Dominum;
Et exsultavit spiritus meus in Deo salutari meo, Quia respexit humilitatem ancillae suae;

ecce enim ex hoc beatam me dicent omnes generationes.

Quia fecit mihi magna qui potens est, et sanctum nomen ejus, Et misericordia ejus a progenie in progenies timentibus eum.

Fecit potentiam in brachio suo;
Dispersit superbos mente cordis sui.

Deposuit potentes de sede, et exaltavit humiles.

Esurientes implevit bonis, et divites dimisit inanes.

Suscepit Israel, puerum suum, recordatus misericordiae suae, Sicut locutus est ad patres nostros, Abraham et semini ejus in saecula.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui
Sancto.

Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper et in
saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Nunc Dimitis

Nunc dimittis servum tuum, Domine, secundum verbum tuum in pace:

Quia viderunt oculi mei salutare tuum
Quod parasti ante faciem omnium populorum:

Lumen ad revelationem gentium, et gloriam plebis tuae Israel.

Gloria Patri, et Filio, et Spiritui
Sancto.

Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper et in
saecula saeculorum. Amen.

My soul doth magnify the Lord.

*And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.
For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden.*

For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him, throughout all generations.

*He hath shewed strength with his arm,
He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.*

He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel,

As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word.

*For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;*

To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

As it was in the beginning, is now and shall be for ever. Amen.

Bible Stories to Bridge Difference

Join us at Belfast Cathedral for a series of conversations around traditional bible stories inviting participants to dialogue across difference.

For many people the bible is a source of division and even conflict. But what if the apparently simple stories which many have been familiar with since childhood actually allow for more complexity and open up space for discussion? Could bible stories actually teach us how to handle our differences better?

Free to attend, each session will begin with Eucharist at 12 noon.

A sandwich lunch will be available from 12.30pm and the conversations will begin at 1.00pm finishing promptly at 2.00pm allowing people to return to work.
